

Player Code of Conduct

- I will strive to exhibit good Christian character at all times.
- I will always be kind to other players, coaches, referees, parents and fans.
- I will do my best to understand and abide by the letter and intention of the Laws of the Game.
- I will respect the referees and their authority during games. If I do not understand or agree with a decision made by the referee(s), I will discuss my concerns with my team captains or coaches in an respectful time, place, and manner.
- I will participate in team devotions (Bible verses, prayer).
- I will use Ephesians 4:29 as my guide for how I speak to my teammates, coaches, opponents, referees, parents and fans:

“Let no unwholesome word proceed from your mouth, but only such a word as is good for edification according to the need of the moment, so that it will give grace to those who hear.”

- I will dress modestly at every practice, game, and team event. If I need to change clothes, I will take appropriate measures to do so modestly. I understand that this applies to both male and female team members.
- I will build and maintain relationships with my teammates with honor and integrity, and in a way that does not ridicule, embarrass, exclude, or show partiality.
- I will remember that I represent the club, which in turn represents the Church of Jesus Christ. I will conduct myself towards others in a way that reflects positively on both, whether on or off of the soccer field.

I pledge to abide by this code of conduct to the best of my ability. I understand that failure to do so may result in appropriate correction and disciplinary action, up to and including removal from the team.
